Members of the Class of 1983 win a variety of scholarships and awards

larship has been presented to 17 incoming freshmen by Radford University on the basis of academic excellence. It is a renewable scholarship valued at $1,380 annually.

Susan has been awarded the Lisa Rogers Memorial Scholarship. The Appomattox County High School Drama Club and Depot Dramatics presents this $200 scholarship annually to a graduating senior who has shown outstanding interest and partipation in music and/or dramatic activities, is a diligent worker, and possesses qualities of leadership.

The Mary Gray Holland Scholarship is also awarded to Susan. This $50 award is presented by the National Honor Society to honor Mrs. Mary Gray Holland, a past sponsor and teacher of Appomattox County High School. The criteria for this award are based on the four standards of the National Honor Society: character, leadership, scholarship, and service.

The faculty has selected Susan to be the recipient of the "Good Citizen Award" presented by the Blue Ridge Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Susan receives this award through her demonstration during high school of the qualities of dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Glenn Morris of Pamplin.

Patty Darlene Roach receives the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club Centennial Scholarship of $200. This is a competitive scholarship awarded annually to a graduating ACHS senior. The recipient must have qualities of leadership, be ambitious, and have good moral character.

Patty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Aulden Roach of Pamplin. She will attend Radford University.

Ruby Ann Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezekial Mosses Smith of Appomattox. Ruby has been selected to receive the Mozella J. Price Scholarship of $200 for her outstanding academic record, character, and purposeful goals. The recipient of this scholarship must exhibit a sincere desire for higher education and have a desire to help others. Ruby will attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Laura Gray Walton, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lloyd G. Walton of Appomattox has received a $500 Founder's Scholarship. This scholarship is one of two awarded annually to incoming freshmen by the College of Home Economics of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. Recipients are selected on the basis of demonstrated academic excellence and leadership ability while in high school. Laura also is the recipient of a $100 Leadership Scholarship presented by the Student Council of Appomattox County High School. The basis for selection included academic and leadership qualities, service to the school and community and dependability. In addition, Laura is a recipient of the Good Citizen award presented by the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 104, of Appomattox. She was selected by the faculty for this award on the basis of honor, courage, patriotism, scholarship, and service.
